Next Education India Pvt Ltd has been ranked among 25 Best E-Learning companies at the Global E-Learning awards conducted by World Education Congress on June 28.

The congress examines modern as well as traditional knowledge system to explore how education can help develop mental, emotional and physical skills to help facilitate personal excellence as well as psychological and socioeconomic well-being.

Hyderabad-based Next Education caters to schools, teachers and students and offers innovative learning solutions for the K-12 segment in CBSE, ICSE, IGCSE and 23 Indian state boards in eight languages.

Their products like TeachNext, LearnNext, NextLabs and NextERP use experiments, animated and interactive tools, formative and summative assessments and activity kits. "It's a great honour for Next education to be in 25 Best E-Learning Companies. This is a reflection of our world class products and services that we offer to schools and students," said Beas Dev Rahlan, CEO, Next education.
